A SIMPLE LITTLE PUZZLE .- Let one of the party suddenly ask, "Can anybody put one of his hands in such a position that the other can not by any possibility, touch it?" As there is but one such position (namely, clasping the elbow), a good deal of fun may be got out of the various and often clumsy attempts to find

We still hear occasionally of the tender, passionate, worshipping lover, who lies in ambush for the idol of his heart's affections, and cuts her head off with a hatchet because she will not marry him. It is getting to be safer for a girl to shoot a man when he proposes, than to reject him. And that possibility will make it very unpleasant for the man when he "asks."-Hawk-

A clergyman was called out the other night to minister by the dying bed of a prominent citizen. Was he connected with a savings bank?" asked the divine. "He was a trustee," replied the messenger. "Well there's no use in my going," said the pastor; "still the mercy of Heaven is infinite; and there's no saying—so I had better go through the motions, Naalehu Plantation, Hawaii; perhaps.'

Dr. Louis, of New Orleans, who is something of a wag, called on a Baptist minister, and propounded a few puzzling questions. "Why is it," said he, " that you are not able to do the miracles that the apostles did? They were protected against all poisons and all kinds of perils. How is it that you are not protected in the same way?" The coloured brother responded promptly, "Don't know about that, doctor; I s'pect I is. I've taken a mighty sight of strong medicine from you, doctor, and I is alive yet."
